

Discover the LPCF "Week of SEND"

Are you looking for support and information for special educational needs and disabilities (SEND)? Look no further than the LPCF "Week of SEND," happening from Monday, January 27th to Friday, January 31st, 2025. This annual event brings together over 80 organizations from Lincolnshire and beyond, all eager to support you and your family.

Why You Should Attend:

- Save Time and Energy: Stop endlessly scrolling through websites. We've done the research for you, bringing all the necessary information to one place.
- Convenient Access: Experience everything from the comfort of your home. With sessions available in the morning, afternoon, and evening, there's always a convenient time to tune in.
- Easy to Use: Not familiar with Zoom? No worries! We offer support and guidance, including a practice session and a helpful video to get you started.
- Engage and Interact: Listen in on sessions while multitasking, and don't hesitate to ask questions via the chat.
- Free Resources: Gain access to valuable information, contacts, and resources from all participating organizations.
- Participate Year-Round: Discover workshops available throughout the year and become part of a supportive community.

This event only happens once a year, as it takes five months to organize. Don't miss the opportunity to make this the most successful "Week of SEND" yet. Mark your calendars and keep an eye on the Week of SEND page on the Information portal for updates on attending organizations.

Join us in this celebration of community spirit and support. We look forward to seeing you there!
